Invitation to the Future of Tourism

Dear Earth lovers,

Eco Tourism is the new concept of incorporating sustainability into tourism. This aims to extend the benefits of tourism to environment and also the local communities.

On 27th & 28th of April, we invite you to Aurangabad to share the learnings of some of the pioneers and leaders in this field. They will present their experiences about their Green Idea, the efforts it took to make it a marketing success and the critical issues that need to be ensured to replicate it. This workshop has been organised by ESOI with the support of Ministry of Tourism, Government of India and Maharashtra Tourism and in partnership with WWF-India.

Two-day workshop on
“RESPONSIBLE TOURISM – ISSUES & PRACTICES”
On April 27th & 28th April
At Hotel VITS, Station road, Aurangabad.

Contact ESOI for details: Mr.Arvind Balan, M: 9717456822;
Email: admin@ecotourismsocietyofindia.org www.ecotourismsocietyofindia.org

We are sure, you will find green solutions to fit your tourism model – be it a Hotel or a Resort, a Travel operation, Forest department, a Government agency, a Home-stay, a Bed & Breakfast setup or even an NGO.

We request you to quickly plan your visit and confirm your participation at the earliest, enabling us to extend the pre booking rate of Rs.950/- (till 25th April) against a spot registration fee of 1,500/-. (Which includes a 2-day's lunch and refreshments. Accommodation extra at special rates). All fees are non-refundable.

Look forward to meeting you at Aurangabad.

With best regards,

Anirudh Chaoji – Ph: 9822056736
